

Jonesboro Sun Progress Edition 2007

The Jonesboro Sun will publish its annual Progress Edition in two parts.

"Progress 2007" will summarize major progress of the past year in all areas of endeavor in Northeast Arkansas. The two parts will be published on Sundays — Sept. 23 and 30. Businesses, industries, agencies and organizations are invited to submit preliminary information for the edition and may use this questionnaire for that purpose. The information will be used by Sun staff writers to prepare news and feature stories for the Progress sections.

There is no charge for submitting information for possible use in news stories. Those who want to be included in advertising for the Progress Editions should contact the Sun advertising department at 935-5525 or 1-800-237-5341.

Your completed questionnaire should be delivered to The Sun newsroom; mailed to: Roy Ockert, Editor, The Jonesboro Sun, P.O. Box 1249, Jonesboro, Ark. 72403; faxed to 935-5823; or e-mailed royo@jonesborosun.com.

The questionnaire must be received by Friday, Sept. 7, for the first section.
